The Lord is challenging us to put Him to the test and allow Him to manifest his promises that are written in His word.

“Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house.

“Test me in this,” says the Lord Almighty, “and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessings that you will not have room enough for it.”

“From the Promise to the Process”

In a biblical context, promises are often associated with God's assurances to His people.

God's promises in the Bible are seen as declarations of His intentions, and they often convey His faithfulness, love, and commitment to His people.

A process can be described as a series of interrelated and interdependent activities or steps that are carried out with the aim of achieving a particular outcome or goal.

It involves a systematic and organized approach to transforming inputs into outputs, often marked by a sequence of actions, stages, or operations.

Now the Lord had said to Abram:
“Get out of your country,
From your family
And from your father's house,
To a land that I will show you.”

Genesis 12:1, NKJV

I will make you a great nation;
I will bless you
And make your name great;
And you shall be a blessing.

Genesis 12:2, NKJV

1. By faith submit to the promise and God will show up in the process.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age; and Sarah had passed the age of childbearing.
12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?"

Genesis 18:11-12, NKJV

6 And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and all who hear will laugh with me."

7 She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

Genesis 21:6-7, NKJV

2. God will have the final laugh during the process.

9 Then they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

Genesis 22:9-10, NKJV

"Do not lay a hand on the boy," he said. "Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son."

Genesis 22:12, NIV

Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

Genesis 22:13, NIV

3. Position yourself for the switch.

And Abraham called the name of the place,
The-Lord-Will-Provide; as it is said to this day,
"In the Mount of the Lord it shall be provided."

Genesis 22:14, NKJV
