Core Truth

The best part of spending time with Jesus is that we get to know him. As we learn to focus on Jesus, we can't help but become more like him—more self-aware, more confident, more self-controlled, and more content.

1 So they arrived at the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gerasenes.

2 When Jesus climbed out of the boat, a man possessed by an evil spirit came out from a cemetery to meet him.

3 This man lived among the burial caves and could no longer be restrained, even with a chain.

4 Whenever he was put into chains and shackles—as he often was—he snapped the chains from his wrists and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him.

Mark 5:3-4 (NLT)

5 Day and night he wandered among the burial caves and in the hills, howling and cutting himself with sharp stones.

6 When Jesus was still some distance away, the man saw him, ran to meet him, and bowed low before him.

Mark 5:5-6 (NLT)

They came up to Jesus and saw the madman sitting there wearing decent clothes and making sense, no longer a walking madhouse of a man.

Mark 5:15 (Message)

When errant, evil thoughts plague our minds, “a walking madhouse” of a person is exactly how we feel.

In our thought life, all hell has broken loose. In the deepest part of us, we're longing for heaven, even as hell seems to be breaking loose.

Until our faith is reset from faith-in-self to faith-in-Jesus, all other resets elude us, including the one we are focused on today, the “Reset of the Mind”.

Romans 12:2 confirms that the path to genuine spiritual transformation—in other words, a radically reset life—is paved by one thing, and one thing alone; the renewing of our minds. The guarantee is when we think different thoughts, we will be different people.

Though an host should

One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after;
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.
