

18 This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, 19 holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, 20 among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy 1:18-20, ESV

Distract/Distraction (v)

The purpose of The Distraction Test is to find out if you will recognize a demonic distraction for what it really is and remain steadfast in what God has told you to do, or if you will put the will of God on hold long enough to answer the door for the devil.

George Davis

If someone fails The Distraction Test by losing sight of his God-given assignment and focusing instead on the distraction, he will miss out on the miracle God is trying to work on his behalf.

George Davis

>Distractions come to hijack our faith so that it will stop working on the blessing God has set up for us.

>Distractions come to turn your attention to something that has nothing to do with what God said.

>Distractions come in all shapes, sizes and colors.

- > Relationships can be a distraction.
- > Doctor's report can be a distraction.
- > Promotions can be a distraction.
- > Increase in finance can be a distraction.

“Men are anxious to improve their circumstances, but are unwilling to improve themselves, they therefore remain bound.”
