Bishop Calvin Scott, Ph.D.

James 2:17-18, (NKJV)

---

¶17 Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

¶18 But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

James 2:19-20, (NKJV)

---

¶19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe and tremble!

¶20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?

“Vision often begins with the inability to accept things the way they are. Over time that dissatisfaction matures into a clear picture of what could be.”

John 5:4-5, (NKJV)

---

¶4 For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had.

¶5 Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years.

John 5:6-7, (NKJV)

---

¶6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, "Do you want to be made well?"

¶7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me."

“Vision require visionaries; people who have allowed their minds and hearts to wander outside the artificial boundaries imposed by the world as it is.”

Mark 2:3-5, (NLT)

3 Four men arrived carrying a paralyzed man on a mat.

4 They couldn't bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, so they dug a hole through the roof above his head. Then they lowered the man on his mat, right down in front of Jesus.

5 Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "My child, your sins are forgiven."
