Walking in God's Purpose

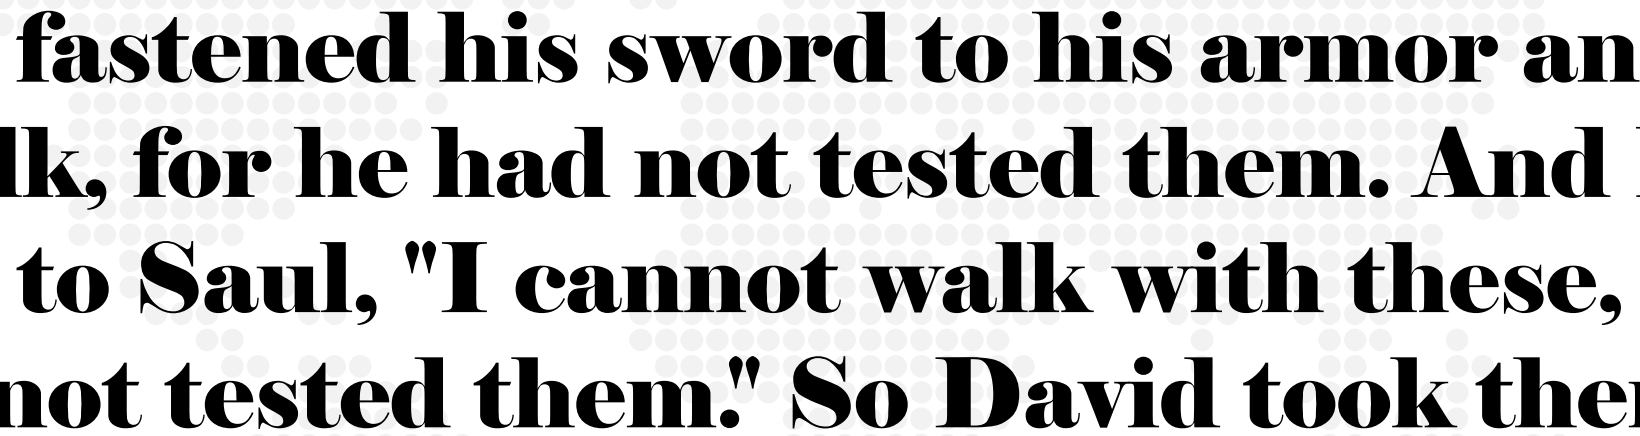

“Use Your Stones”

So Saul clothed David with his armor, and he put a bronze helmet on his head;
he also clothed him with a coat of mail.

1 Samuel 17:38, NKJV

A faint, dotted world map is centered in the background of the slide, behind the main text.

David fastened his sword to his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them. And David said to Saul, "I cannot walk with these, for I have not tested them." So David took them off.

1 Samuel 17:39, NKJV

Then he took his staff in his hand; and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag, in a pouch which he had, and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine.

1 Samuel 17:40, NKJV

1. Use what is in your hand.

Blessed be the Lord my Rock,
Who trains my hands for war,
And my fingers for battle.

Psalm 144:1, NKJV

2. Start Small.

Purpose is developed in increments.

Do not despise these small beginnings, for the Lord rejoices to see the work begin...

Zechariah 4:10

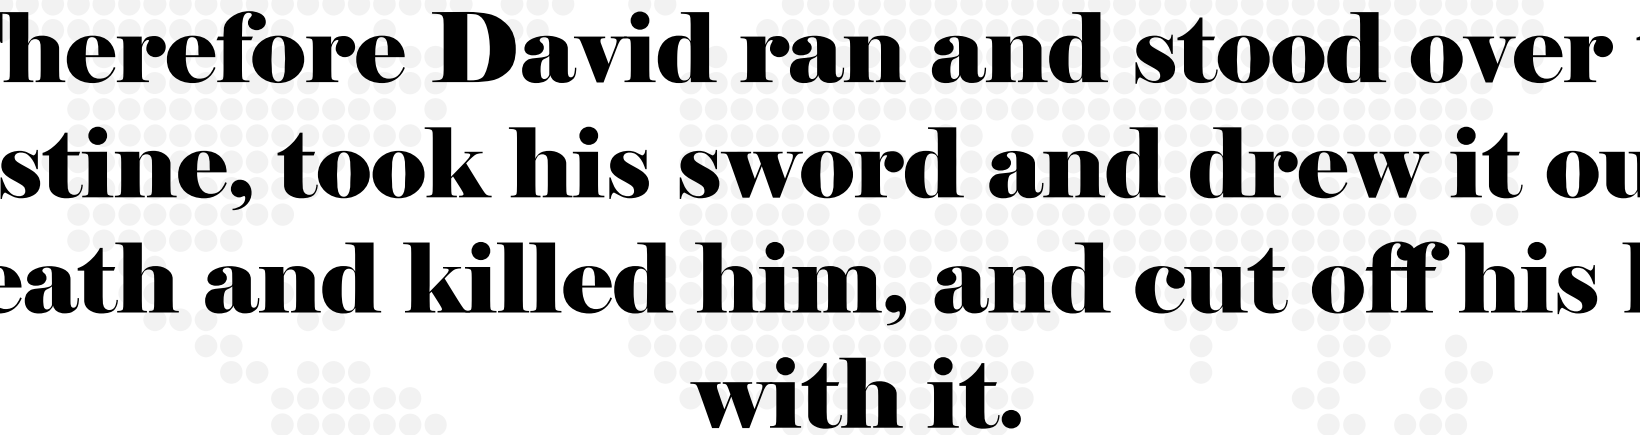

3. Run to the battle.

So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him.
But there was no sword in the hand of David.

1 Samuel 17:50, NKJV

Therefore David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it.

1 Samuel 17:51, NKJV
